LAKESIDE
WEALTH MANAGEMENT

Lakeside Wealth Management is a team of experienced professionals who manage over $1.3 Billion in assets on behalf of institutions, corporations, and private clients.

Hunter Mang serves as a Client Services Associate in Lakeside's Asset Management Division. Hunter joined the firm after graduating for Purdue University in the spring of 2018. His primary responsibilities are executing trades on a daily basis, assisting advisors with portfolio implementation and tracking client data within Lakeside's CRM software applications. Hunter plays a pivotal role in monitoring performance and holdings of various models and providing a complete progress overview for the team. Additionally, he coordinates vendor communications and appointments on behalf of Lakeside advisors

Prior to joining the Lakeside team, Hunter interned for Cheevers & Company, an options trading firm in Chicago.
