Lakeside Wealth Management is a team of experienced professionals who manage over $1.3 Billion on behalf of institutions, corporations, and private clients.

Elizabeth Tavidian holds a dual role with Lakeside, serving as the Executive Assistant for Vice President, Jennifer San Fillippo, and Office Manager our "Lakeside North" campus in Brookfield Wisconsin. Her primary focuses outside of maintaining schedules include assisting with client meeting preparations, preparing expense reports, and tracking client follow up requirements. Elizabeth also manages day to day operations for the office including answering phones, responding to fax requests and coordinating office visits.

Prior to joining the Lakeside team, Elizabeth served as the executive assistant and event coordinator for AXA Advisors. She also served as an office manager for Allstate. In her spare time, you can find Elizabeth participating in extreme sports such as bobsledding or sky diving!
